

It's More Fun in the Philippines: Manila International School Counselor Association

Manila International School Counselor Association (MISCA) represents 12 independent schools offering a variety of diploma options, such as the International Baccalaureate, AP, A-levels, Philippines National Curriculum, US High School Diploma, Australian National Curriculum, French and German diplomas.

Manila is home to a variety of international corporations and government agencies as well as NGOs. Students from Manila represent some of the most highly mobile, educated students in the country who are seeking a variety of international study opportunities. Students are excited to study abroad but need the kind of insight from university reps that will tip them over into applying.
